KEY INSIGHTS

- Country is a weak driver: all 17 countries churn at 39-43%, a gap of only about 3 points.
- India has the highest churn rate (42.7%). Germany has the lowest (39.3%).
- Revenue lost is spread evenly: every country accounts for about 5.5-6.4% of the total. Singapore is the highest at about $13.2M.
- Segment matters more than country: Consumer is the worst segment in 4 of the top 5 worst combinations, and Premium has the lowest churn rates.

KEY INSIGHTS

- Contact the 452 high-risk customers who have not churned yet. They hold about $12.1M in lifetime value, so start with the highest values.
- Use some retention action rather than none: churn is about 31-34% with an action and about 45% without one.
- Do not claim one action is best. All six perform within about 3.6 points of each other, and each returns about 140-160% on its cost.
- Focus first on the groups from page 2: low engagement, satisfaction scores of 1-2, and customers with 11 or more support tickets.
